OIL AND GAS WITHHOLDING INFORMATION

Withholding Rate and Monthly Due Dates:

Section 39-29-111, Colorado Revised Statutes, as amended, provides that every producer or every first purchaser of oil or gas shall withhold 1% from every payment disbursed, including overriding royalties and working interest. Withholding is not required from payments to the State of Colorado or U.S. Government.

It is further provided that the aggregate amounts so withheld during each quarter shall be paid to the Department of Revenue by these dates:

Withholding Month	Due Date
January	April 1
February	May 1
March	June 1
April	July 1
May	August 1
June	September 1
July	October 1
August	November 1
September	December 1
October	January 1
November	February 1
December	March 1

A RETURN MUST BE FILED FOR EACH CALENDAR MONTH

The paper return may only be used to report information on lines 2-5 or if you experience a delay in receiving your EFT authorization. Submitting payment with paper returns after EFT authorization is received, or not applying for EFT authorization, may result in penalty and/or interest charges on your payments.

Interest:

Failure to file a return and pay the tax on or before the due date will result in interest at the current statutory rate from the due date to the date of payment.

Penalty:

Failure to file a return and pay the tax on or before the due date will result in a penalty at the rate of 30% or $30.00 whichever is greater, per C.R.S. 39-29-115(1).

Annual Reconciliation Reports:

On or before April 15 following the close of the calendar year, all producers or first purchasers withholding severance tax from oil and gas during the calendar year must file Annual Reconciliation of Severance Tax Withheld from Oil and Gas Payments (Form DR 0456). The Oil and Gas Withholding Statement (form DR 0021W) for each person from whom Colorado gross severance tax was withheld from oil and gas payments during the calendar year shall be submitted with the DR 0456.
